

MARK GIMBY & MONA GOODWIN

Mark Gimby, as a boy played old time dances with his father in small town Saskatchewan. You'll find his suave vocals and snappy guitar pickin' transport you to an era of ragtime, swing and classic country.

Mona Goodwin spent many years traveling North America and Europe in a family minstrel show. A multi-instrumentalist and singer, Mona ignites every audience with her own brand of hillbilly hoedown, foot stompin' old time tunes.

Together, Mark and Mona harken back to a time when people knew how to entertain themselves and homegrown music was vital to every community.

You can be sure that their music is vintage, fun and imminently entertaining.
