

The Lazy MKs

The Lazy MKs from Regina, SK are a steel guitar trio who in the tradition of the Texas Playboys and The Lost Planet Airmen play a wide range of music. While grown out the country tradition, the music draws closer comparisons to indie groups like Calexico and the Sadies.

Performing at the Bruno Cherry Festival with Special Guests:

B.D. Willoughby is a songwriter and environmental educator with heart and depth. He is best known as a former member of Regina's Library Voices. This summer he releasing his debut EP "Sunrise" and is featured at the Regina Folk Festival. <http://www.myspace.com/bdwilloughby>

Belle Plaine is a country/jazz songwriter originally from Rose Valley. Carolyn Mark said of her "She can sing like a hot-damn, was ready to leave on tour at a moments notice and shot the shit out of a spoon with a BB gun from the 50 yard mark."

<http://www.myspace.com/belleplaine>

As a member of cosmic alt country rockers "The Lonesome Weekends", Chris Sleightholm spans the bridge from Ernest Tubb to Gram Parsons. Telecaster shenanigans ensue.

<http://www.myspace.com/thelonesomeweekends>

