

2010 - Literary Event & Food Demo

Saturday July 24th

Location: Basement Dining Hall

Time: 1:00 P.M.

Cowboy Poetry with Bernadette Greuel. She will be reading from her book of poetry Oh for the Life of a Farmer's Wife, probably the best selling poetry book in Saskatchewan. Bernadette is also one of the most entertaining poets in Saskatchewan so don't miss this reading!

1:30 P.M.

Grab a slice of Cherry Pie and then make your way downstairs where author and freelance writer Amy-Jo Ehman will present her observations about good Prairie foods. She will be presenting her book: Prairie Feast.

Sunday, July 25th

Location: Basement Dining Hall

Time: 1:00 P.M.

Food Demonstration with Laurel Merkosky and Marie Saretsky – “The Two Women From Burr”- Marie and Laurel will show us new and interesting ways of preparing salads. They are both entertaining and informative – you'll never look at a salad the same way again after hearing this talk!

Time: 2 P.M.

Sister Maureen Maier will talk about the history of the Ursuline Sisters, and the Ursuline Academy. (Without which, we wouldn't have the beautiful grounds and building to host the Cherry Festival!). Sr. Maureen will present her book The Women of Service for the Glory of God.

Time 2:30 P.M.

Jim Anderson will present two books from his fantasy trilogy The Stoneholding and Darkling Fields of Arvon. He will also talk about the publishing business what it takes to get a book published. Jim is a very interesting and entertaining speaker. So, regardless of your literary tastes, you will enjoy his talk.

Also, D. Grant Black will be present signing copies of his best seller The Saskatchewan Book of Musts.

*All the authors will have signed copies of their books for sale.
